

South-West Stud Tour

Geisel Park's Eddie Rigg welcomed Brittany Taylor and Owners-Only during the recent South-West Stud Tour. The Myalup stud was the last stop for a large roll-call of visitors.

"It's a superb day to parade the stallions. People have been raving about it which is fantastic." Kent Johnston / Taunton Vale

"Now is the time to get people talking about breeding. It's a great time to have a go." Rob Gray / Rangeview

"Westspeed Platinum is serious. You can win a race and the best part of $80,000." Eddie Rigg / Geisel Park

Photos / Scott Hamilton Media

RANGEVIEW STUD

Jody and Shelby Gray give Key Business some TLC after a lifetime's service at Rangeview Stud. Just turned 28, he covered 18 books and was pensioned in 2013 shortly after his son Barakey won the G1 Winterbottom Stakes.

Rangeview stallion Galah has another promising winner in Perth. His 3yo filly Stella Anne was very impressive at Belmont on September 12.

GEISEL PARK STUD

All American parades with stud manager Conor Dunlop. He has sired 12 individual winners since the start of the new season.

Vert De Grece is a son of Verglas and was a smashing 2yo Group 1 winner in France. His first foals were also on show for Owners-Only.

TAUNTON VALE

Demerit (left) and King's Troop parade with Kent Johnston. Demerit's service fee was raised to $5,500 after a successful season in 2017-18.